

BYC Members Handbook Section 13 – How to contact other BYC Members or a local youth council in our network

Contacting another BYC Members

We cannot provide direct contacts for other BYC Members due to data protection. However we will can make contact with another member on your behalf and pass on your details (if you give us permission, of course), so that they can contact you.

Contacting Local Youth Councils

On the BYC website you can search our directory of local youth councils by post code, address, or town.

Just go to www.byc.org.uk/Find-a-Local-Youth-Council

The screenshot displays the BYC website's search interface. On the left, a map of the Wolverhampton area is shown with a callout box for 'Wolverhampton City Youth Council (WYF)'. The callout box contains the following information:

- 42 Bond House
- Bond Street
- Wolverhampton
- WV2 4AS
- 01902 551 967
- <http://www.wolverhamptonyouthcouncil.org.uk/standard.php>
- office@wolverhamptonyouthcouncil.org.uk

On the right side of the interface, there is a 'Local Youth Council Search' section with a search bar containing 'wolverhampton' and a 'Go' button. Below the search bar, there are tabs for 'Videos', 'Events', and 'News'. A video player is visible, showing a young man named Jack, 16, with a 5-star rating and the text 'Young Voices - Young People Are Stronger Together'.
